

Professional Liability Insurance

Home Inspectors

Maven means one who is an expert or connoisseur in their field. Just as you are a Maven in your profession, at Balance Partners, our Maven team is here to focus on the unique exposures of your home inspector clients.

The Balance Partnership

You don't become a maven overnight - expertise comes with an accumulation of knowledge and experience. Our goal is to understand your home inspector client's business and help you build a professional liability policy that suits their individual needs.
